International Relations and Global Affairs

Spend a year in Milan, Italy, and receive a university degree!

Students enrolled at the UACS School of Political Science can now opt for a double degree by finishing their third year of studies at UNIVERSITÀ CATTOLICA DEL SACRO CUORE in the beautiful city of Milan, Italy.

Get ready to embark on a once-in-a-lifetime educational journey at Università Cattolica, the largest non-state University in Europe!

Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore is a globally recognized university, with a remarkable ranking of #301-350 in the Times Higher Education 2024 rankings. The university has a proven track record of excellence in international exchange programs, ranking 6th in Europe and 2nd in Italy for outbound exchange students, and 48th in Europe and 3rd in Italy for inbound exchange students in the QS Europe University Ranking 2024. It has also achieved a significant milestone in academic excellence, with 17 subjects placed within the top 350 globally in the QS World University Ranking by Subject 2023.

The Double Degree Program

The Bachelor's program in International Relations and Global Affairs offers students an understanding of how people, groups, countries, and international organizations interact in different parts of the world. With exposure to experts of institutions and organizations active in the political, social and economic areas of international relations, students are provided a complex and diverse curriculum of learning, combining history, political science, economics, law, sociology, and psychology.

By completing their third year of studies at Università Cattolica in Milan, the students will get both a Macedonian and Italian diploma.

Eligibility, Requirements and Courses

Eligible for this program are students who have completed two years of their studies at the UACS School of Political Science and have obtained: at least 112 ECTS, a minimum GPA of 2.33, and a minimum level of English of (or equivalent to) TOEFL iBT 80 or IELTS 6.0.

To be entitled to the degree awarded by Università Cattolica, the students must complete a program equal to another 69 credits in a one academic year period.
